He has a wife and one child.

Everybody that has taken a hand in our fair since the days of the "Young Men's Fair Company" having made a highly successful financial failure of it, it is probable that the Maysville Fair will take a whack at it this year. If they do, it will be a "go" from start to finish. They are the people that know no such word as fail.

The Weather Clerk will please take notice that Mayville is on the map, and send us at least one fair Memorial Day in ten.

About the only things that the visiting Elks didn't seem to want was Mayville's muddy roads—Second Canal in several places being nearly ankle deep, caused by idiotic "sprinklers."

Mayville will next year have an income of $49,012.91, of which $36,848.02 will be from direct taxation. Of this amount $7,500—probably more—will be thrown away on the so-called streets. An annual expenditure of $4,000 would secure sufficient streets.

Thirty years would pay the principal of a $100,000 bond issue necessary to build the streets.

The people of South Carolina are to be asked to decide which man more fairly represents the South Carolina Democracy, Senator McCLAIN or Senator TILLMAN. As a result of a joint debate both men have resigned from the Senate, and will stand before the people to determine which one fairly represents the voters, and the result will be awaited with interest, as it will show whether South Carolinians are wedded to the dead past or whether they desire to join the great army of progress.

Judge James P. Gregory of the Jefferson County Court has ruled that electric railways were not contemplated in the Kentucky Statutes which provide that railways may condemn a right of way in case they are unable to purchase it. Of course not, for when the statute-makers built that statute such thing as an electric railway was considered a "damned barren idealism." In this era of progress it's hard to provide for all the improvements which may develop. Now let the Legislature amend the statute.

Mr. O. G. Layton of Lee street, through his attorneys, Messrs. A. E. and D. Cole, yesterday filed suit against the city of Mayville to recover $10,000 damages for injuries received in a fall on the street the 5th of last February.

Short Talks on Advertising By Charles Austin Bates

People used to say:

"Oh, I never pay any attention to advertisements; they never sell the truth."

Now, it's different; people do read advertisements and they believe them. Advertisers are becoming more careful and more scrupulously truthful every day. I know a firm of advertising agents who also own a medicinal soap. I said: "It is rather such a wonderful thing, and do you take the care you say you do in making it?"

The answer was:

"Of course it is a good thing. We have seen too much of advertising to be fools enough to spend money pushing a poor article."

Most all advertisers understand this nowadays, and that is why advertising pays better than it used to.

The best place to put an advertisement is in the paper that enjoys the confidence of the community. I believe that the standing of the paper reflects on the advertisements it carries. There is another thought which never occurred to me, but which was conveyed in a remark recently made to me by Mr. M. M. Gilliam, the advertising manager at Wenamaker's. He said:

"A sleepy paper gets a sleepy constituency. An alert, wide-awake, progressive sheet gets readers who like that sort of thing—or lifts them to it."

Wide-awake people are the ones most influenced by advertising—progressive people who are not afraid of a new thing or a new idea; people who believe in the paper they read because they have learned to rely on it.

Depend upon this, if the editorials carry weight the ads. will pay. Put your trust and your money in that sort of paper.

Occasionally an advertisement will fall flat. The wise man looks for the reason. He doesn't say blindly "Advertising doesn't pay." He looks at the condition of general trade, at the weather, at the goods and the price and the way the ad. was worded.

This is certain: A readable ad. in a readable paper will be read. Probably not by all of the readers of the paper, but by a sufficient number to make the ad. pay if the goods are right.

No doubt about it whatever. It's as sure as sunshine.

A cloudy day comes sometimes, but it doesn't stay long.

A TRIPLE TRAGEDY.

Mrs. Katie Hester Killed Her Husband, Innocent Babe and Herself at Covington, Ky.

Covington, Ky., June 1.—Murder of her husband and innocent babe, to say nothing of the destruction of her own life, is the charge against a Covington woman, who before her Maker must account for. The crimes committed Friday evening are the most appalling in police annals of the Kentucky city.

Ottie Hester, a saloon keeper at Third street and Western avenue, known to every follower of pugilism by her name, is the interested man. His 3-year-old daughter Katie met her fate a short time after her mother, when Mrs. Katie Hester did not wait a grocer to turn her murdered man's weapon with which the crimes were committed upon herself.

Just what causes prompted the wholesale slaughter was a matter of conjecture. No part of the entire affair was witnessed by any one now alive, as it all occurred in the living apartment of the Hester family. True, shots were heard by many people in the vicinity, but nobody was able to locate the direction from which they came.

The first seen of Mrs. Hester was about 6 o'clock in the evening. At that time she was tending the bar in the place, as her husband employed no barkeeper. Hester was then some where about Covington upon business pertaining to another saloon which he was about to open.

Question of Need of an Extra Session of Congress Regarded as Premature.

CABINET DISCUSSED THE MATTER.

No Conclusion Reached as to the Philippine Tariff Situation as Affected by the Recent Decisions.

Action of the Cuban Constitutional Convention Was Not a "Substantial" Compliance With the Platt Amendment.

Washington, June 1.—The cabinet was unable to reach any conclusions as to the Philippine tariff situation as affected by the recent decisions of the Supreme court. Attorney General Knox will make a careful examination of the language of the decision at all once, and ascertain their exact bearing on the tariff between this country and the Philippines. He will then state to the president and his advisers the powers now vested in the government in dealing with this subject. There was little discussion of this matter owing to the general lack of clear understanding as to the results of his decision. Mr. Knox may report his conclusions on the subject at the next cabinet meeting, and probably also will discuss the results of his examination of the opinions of the court with the president individually. ## FIVE MEN LYNCHED

Calvin Hall, His Three Sons and Dan Yantis Strung Up at Lookout, Cal.

WERE CHARGED WITH HORSESTEALING.

Officers in Charge of the Prisoners Were Overpowered and Compelled to Assist the Mob.

Hill Was a Man of Considerable Intelligence—His Wife Was a Squaw—The Particulars.

Alhambra, Cal., June 1.—Calvin Hall and his three sons, Frank, John and Martin, and Dan Yantis, who were charged with stealing horses for years, were arrested and guarded by three officers. A mob of 40 masked men took them at 1 o'clock and hanged them to a bridge near Lookout. The officers in charge of the prisoners were overpowered and compelled to help hang them. The mob dispersed within five minutes. The bodies were still hanging at noon. Sheriff Street and District Attorney Honney and Reporter Dunn have gone to the scene of the hanging.

Lookout, the scene of the lynching, is in the Hot Springs valley, on Platt river, 25 miles from Alhambra, the county seat of Dodge county. There is no telegraphic communication with the valley, and the news of the lynching was brought to Alhambra by courier. Particulars are, therefore, very meager.

The Bodies Cut Down. The district attorney has sent down the bodies to the scene of the lynching. Hall was a man of considerable intelligence. His wife was a squaw.

Frank Hall, it is reported, made such strong resistance that the mob hanged him before it got to the main bridge under a small bridge over a deep chasm. The others were taken to the main bridge and Calvin Hall the father, was hanged on the north side and Yantis and the other three boys were hanged on the south side of the bridge. As soon as the lynching was discovered word was telegraphed to the district attorney, sheriff at Alhambra, and they, together with the coroner, are now on the way to the scene of the tragedy to hold an inquest.

CUBANS DISAPPOINTED.

Surprised Over Administration Decision Not to Accept the Cuban Constitution as Adopted.

Havana, June 1.—The decision of the United States government not to accept the Cuban constitution as adopted by the Havana convention caused great surprise and disappointment to the members of the convention who voted in favor of the constitution as adopted. Two leading conservatives who were interviewed Friday night on the subject of the substance that they had reason to suppose that the constitution would be acceptable to Washington, and that otherwise they would not have voted for the majority report as submitted. As they also pointed out that in order to avoid a possibility of rejection the majority had been changed at the last moment by striking out the interpretation at the end of the clauses and putting them in the form of a resolution by the convention accepting the Platt amendment as passed by congress.

Both delegates expressed regret that the misunderstanding and said they doubted that the convention would now reconsider this action, as the fight had been hot, the victory had been won by a narrow vote, and those who had tried to do their duty toward their country had been bitterly assailed as traitors and perjurers.

EXTREMELY WEAK.

Mrs. McKinley Is Very Seriously Ill, and Falls Out of Bed—A Dental.

Washington, June 1.—Mrs. McKinley failed to show any improvement during the day, and Friday night her condition is reported as unchanged from the status given in the bulletin issued during the morning. One of the grave features of the case is the fact that she continues extremely weak and fails to gain in strength. She is very seriously ill, but has had severe attacks of illness since the attack, and this gives rise for hope that she will yet show improvement. No bulletin was issued Friday night, and none will be until after the consultation of the physicians. ## TILLMAN AND McLAUREN.

Gov. McInerney Refused to Accept Their Resignations as Senators From South Carolina.

Columbia, S. C., June 1.—Gov. McInerney, Friday, acting, he said, in accordance with the wishes of the people, who did not wish a primary, with its incident strife and unrest, refused to accept the resignation of Senators Tillman and McLauren. These resignations were announced at a political meeting in Gaffney, May 25.

He wrote a communication to the senators, in which he said at first that he "returned their resignations for further consideration." In the closing paragraphs of his letter, however, the governor unequivocally "declined to accept" the resignations. His reasons for putting in a few words, a canvass between the two would result in bitterness, stir up the people just at a period when they are trying to get together for the material progress of the state, and would be a campaign of personalities instead of education.
